

Museum of Alchemists

Address:

Jánský vršek 8, 118 00 Malá Strana

Website:

www.alchemiae.cz/en

Summary:

The Museum Alchemy lies below the castle, up the hill from Malostranska Beseda and very near the Prague Visitor Centre and Golden Key. It is part of a museum which tells the story of John Kelly a sixteenth century English alchemist who lived in the building. The theatre has basic lights and sound with black masking and seating on benches around the side with stools. There is a bar immediately beside the performance space and a courtyard. The whole building has recently been redeveloped and there may be minor changes to the venue.

It is suitable for small scale music, theatre, poetry, storytelling, comedy, etc.

Seating

30 on benches around side and Stools

Stage Dimensions

Width 3.10, Depth 2.10, Height +0.40. Please note that the stage has a curve on the DR edge. The stage has a trap door in the centre for storage. This does not lead off stage.

Stage Floor

Wooden boarding (so some foot noise)

Sight lines

Good

Access

From courtyard into auditorium, or from courtyard via dressing room. 0.40 step up to the stage from all entrances.

Audience Entrance

From Courtyard into auditorium, the entrance is flat though across uneven paving stones

Dressing Rooms

Single, immediately behind stage. There are no separate toilets or any showers. Dressing room has access to courtyard and via that to auditorium as well as direct onto rear of stage. Limited storage in dressing room or behind blacks.

Toilets

Shared with audience (in courtyard)!

Walls

Stage: Black drapes. Auditorium painted night blue, currently with stars painted on (tbc)

Sound

Alchemy is used for small music performances and has a Sampson PA

Mixer 4 mic channel input plus 2 stereo line inpts. Stereo output

Speakers Sampson 300w on stands

2 vox mics on stands

Tie lines from control position to stage.

Piano (tbc)

There is a piano next to the stage. This cannot be moved.

Lighting (tbc)

The lighting is quite basic, Front light only.

5 x LED PARs (colour change)

2 x 500w PC

Storage

Limited storage in dressing room and some behind blacks for flat items.

Furniture

A small selection of chairs and tables available.

Venue Photos

More photos available at:

<https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B4LaZ1IM6qtuX3FseThrZHFWQTQ>

Stage

Piano

Benches around side and Stools

Control Position

LED Lights

:

Venue floor plan:

Alchemy

